7. Each director, officer and employee of BUDC should abstain from making personal investments in enterprises which he or she has reason to believe may be directly involved in decisions to be made by him or her or which will otherwise create substantial conflict between his or her duty in the public interest and his or her private interest.

8. Each director, officer or employee of BUDC should endeavor to pursue a course of conduct which will not raise suspicion among the public that he or she is likely to be engaged in acts that are in violation of his or her trust.

ARTICLE II

Conflicts of Interest

1. Purpose. The purpose of this Article is to protect BUDC when it is considering entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of a Related Party, and to set forth procedures for handling potential or actual Conflicts of Interest and Related Party Transactions.

- (ii) A compensation arrangement with BUDC or with any entity or individual with which BUDC has a transaction or arrangement; or
- (iii) A potential ownership or investment interest in, or compensation arrangement with, any entity or individual with which BUDC is negotiating a transaction or arrangement.

“Related Party Transaction” means any transaction, agreement or any other arrangement in which a Related Party has a Financial Interest and in which BUDC or any affiliate of BUDC is a participant, except that a transaction shall not be a Related Party Transaction if: (i) the transaction or the Related Party’s Financial Interest in the transaction is de minimis, or (ii) the transaction would not customarily be reviewed by the BUDC Board of Directors or boards of similar organizations in the ordinary course of business and is available to others on the same or similar terms.

“Relative” of an individual means his or her (i) spouse, domestic partner, ancestors, brothers and sisters (whether whole or half-blood), children (whether natural or adopted), grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and spouses of brothers, sisters, children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren.

3. Procedures for Disclosure and Resolution of Conflicts of Interest.

(a) Promptly upon learning of the existence of an actual or potential Conflict of Interest and/or Related Party Transaction, the individual (the “Interested Person”) shall disclose the matter and his or her Financial Interest, if applicable. Disclosure shall be made orally at a meeting of the Board or any committee thereof, or by written or electronic communication to the BUDC Ethics Officer or BUDC legal counsel.

- (i) If disclosure is made at a meeting of the Board, the Board shall:

 - (B) direct the matter to the BUDC Governance Committee for such determination.

- (ii) If disclosure is made at a meeting of any BUDC committee or to the BUDC Ethics Officer or BUDC legal counsel, the matter will be referred to the Governance Committee for determination of whether a Conflict of Interest and/or Related Party Transaction exists.

(b) The Interested Person shall, at the request of the Board or the Governance Committee, as applicable, explain the circumstances of the actual or potential Conflict of Interest and/or Related Party Transaction. The Interested Person shall not, however, be present at, participate in, or attempt to influence the Board or Governance Committee deliberation or vote regarding whether a Conflict of Interest and/or Related Party Transaction exists.

- (i) If the Board or the Governance Committee, as applicable, determines that the agreement, transaction or arrangement is a Related Party Transaction, then the Board or the Governance Committee shall follow the procedures for Related Party Transactions set forth in Section 4 of this Article.
- (ii) If the Board or the Governance Committee, as applicable, determines that a Conflict of Interest exists, but the agreement, transaction or arrangement does not constitute a Related Party Transaction, then the Board or the Governance Committee may proceed with its consideration of the transaction, provided however, that the Interested Person shall abstain from deliberation and voting regarding the transaction.
- (iii) If the Board or the Governance Committee, as applicable, determines that a Conflict of Interest does not exist, then the Board or the Governance Committee may proceed with its consideration of the transaction, and the Interested Person may participate in the deliberation and voting regarding the transaction.
- (iv) The existence and resolution of the potential Conflict of Interest and/or Related Party Transaction shall be documented in the minutes of the meeting(s) at which the matter was discussed and voted upon.

4. Related Party Transactions.

(a) BUDC may enter into a Related Party Transaction only if the Board or the Governance Committee determines that the transaction is fair, reasonable and in BUDC's best interest at the time of such determination (such determination shall be documented in the minutes of the meeting at which the Related Party Transaction was approved); provided, however, that prior to entering into the transaction, the Board or the Governance Committee shall consider alternatives to the extent available.

(b) Related Party Transactions shall be approved by not less than a majority vote of the Board or the Governance Committee, as applicable (not counting the Interested Person for purposes of voting or quorum). The Board or Governance Committee shall contemporaneously document in the meeting minutes the basis for approval, including its consideration of alternative transactions.

5. Annual Disclosure. Prior to the initial election of any director or officer, and annually thereafter, he or she shall complete, sign and submit to the Secretary a written statement identifying, to the best of his or her knowledge, any entity of which he or she is an officer, director, trustee, member, owner (either as a sole proprietor or as partner), or employee, and with which BUDC has a relationship, and any transaction in which he or she might have a conflicting interest. Compliance with the financial disclosure requirements of the City of Buffalo, if so applicable, shall be deemed compliance with the requirements of this Section.

The Executive Vice President of BUDC shall serve as the Ethics Officer. In the event of a vacancy, the BUDC Governance Committee Chair shall serve as the Ethics Officer until such time as the BUDC Board appoints a successor.

In accordance with Title 12 of Article 9 of the Public Authorities Law, BUDC has adopted a Whistleblower Policy to afford certain protections to individuals who, in good faith, report violations of the Code of Ethics or other instances of potential wrongdoing within BUDC. The Whistleblower Policy provides BUDC directors, officers, and employees with a confidential means to report credible allegations of misconduct, wrongdoing, or unethical behavior and to protect those individuals, when acting in good faith, from personal or professional retaliation. Any director, officer or employee who seeks to report a violation of the Code of Ethics or other instances of potential wrongdoing should utilize the reporting procedures set forth in the Whistleblower Policy.
