Submittal Deadline: Thursday, August 1, 2024 at 1:00 P.M.

Overview and Mission of BUDC

Buffalo Urban Development Corporation (BUDC) is the City of Buffalo's not-for-profit development agency, reclaiming distressed land and buildings for future development with Mayor Byron W. Brown serving as Chairman of the Board. As the City's development agency, BUDC seeks to create an environment conducive to private investment, provide oversight and visioning for projects of regional significance, serve as a liaison among various public and private stakeholders, serve as a conduit for public funding of significant projects and serve as a real estate holding company for certain public-sector projects.

The mission of BUDC is to support the urban economic development efforts of the region through the acquisition, remediation, and management of distressed properties, and to engage in related real estate development activities to attract and/or retain new and existing businesses to the City as part of the region. The mission of BUDC also includes supporting the revitalization of downtown Buffalo by serving as the lead management entity for the Buffalo Building Reuse Project (BBRP) and Race for Place initiatives, working in collaboration with the City of Buffalo, including the coordination of financial assistance for downtown adaptive re-use projects and public right-of-way improvements. BUDC also serves as the lead management entity for the Ralph Wilson Park transformation.

Background Information

BUDC and the City of Buffalo's dedication to downtown revitalization through strategic infrastructure projects marks a significant advance towards moving the city into a new era of prosperity and growth. Central to this vision are several pivotal downtown plans: Downtown Waterfront Improvement Plan, City of Buffalo's Smart Street Design Plan, the Downtown Buffalo Infrastructure and Public Realm Master Plan; and the Future of Mobility: Remaking Buffalo for the 21st Century.

The Downtown Waterfront Improvement Plan aims to enhance connectivity between residents and visitors to downtown's waterfront area, facilitating easier access to its attractions and amenities. This comprehensive initiative includes enhancements to roadways, trails, parks, lighting, and more, with the goal of improving connectivity and accessibility. By improving public realm enhancements from Downtown Buffalo's waterfront to Ralph Wilson Park, the design plan seeks to create an inviting environment conducive to community engagement and enjoyment of waterfront amenities.

The City of Buffalo's Smart Street Design Plan underscores a commitment to innovative urban development strategies focused on sustainability, connectivity, and economic vitality. This plan prioritizes integrating pedestrian-friendly pathways, green spaces, and advanced technology infrastructure into the city's streetscape. By emphasizing smart street design principles, the city aims to create safer, more accessible, and environmentally friendly urban environments that support economic growth and enhance the overall urban experience.

In addition to these plans, the City of Buffalo has other related plans and initiatives, and maintains a master list of City-lead capital improvement projects that are in various stages of planning and implementation.

These revitalization efforts are significantly supported by collaborative partnerships with stakeholders and the strategic use of public-private partnerships. By leveraging resources and expertise from both the public and private sectors, BUDC and the City of Buffalo can maximize the impact of their initiatives and catalyze increased investment in downtown infrastructure projects. These revitalization efforts all include equitability as a major goal as we look to better connect the west and east side neighborhoods to downtown to create a more cohesive and connected Downtown for all residents and visitors. Another major goal includes inclusive street designs ensuring, that all communities no matter age or ability can safely access downtown. This collaborative approach not only accelerates development, but also ensures that the interests and needs of the community are adequately addressed.

As these downtown plans gain momentum, they serve as catalysts for a rise in infrastructure projects within downtown Buffalo, solidifying the city's reputation as a leader in progressive urban development. By revitalizing Buffalo's physical landscape and fostering a vibrant and inclusive urban environment, these initiatives reflect the aspirations and diversity of its residents while positioning the city for continued success and growth.

Given the extensive number of projects, BUDC and the City of Buffalo require a Project Manager to create a phasing schedule to ensure projects are executed within time and budget constraints. The Project Manager will also coordinate stakeholders, navigate regulations, monitor progress, and mitigate risks, ensuring successful implementation and urban revitalization.
